WANTS SLAVES .- In his late message, Governor Extra Billy. Smith thus ventilates the subject of the employment of slaves in the army:

I am aware that a clamor has been raised against the policy of putting negroes into the army, by good and loyal men, because they say, "the end is not yer; that our army of citizen soldiers is still competent to make good our defense." No one would advocate the policy of thus appropriating our slaves, except as a matter of urgent necessity; but as public opinion is widely divided on this subject, does not common prudence require us to fear that those opposed to this extreme measure may be mistaken? Suppose it should so turn out. How deep would be their responsibility to the country, to freedom and independence everywhere .-I know it is the opinion of some of the highest military authorities that the time has come when we should call our slaves to our assistance, and I hold it to be clearly the duty of every citizen, however much he may doubt the wisdom and necessity of the policy, to co-operate in strengthening, by every means, our armies. I repeat, I know this policy is looked to with anxiety by some of the ablest military men of the age, who believe that it is of the last importance that it should be adopted without delay. I therefore, earnestly recommend to the Legislature that they should give this subject early consideration, and enact such measures as their wisdom may approve.

BEECHER ON THE ELECTION. -In a sermon on the Sunday after the Presidential election, Henry Ward

Never before have Christ and Belial been clearly opposed, and, thank God, Christ has beaten. The assault was made by a party whose very name was captivating. It is not the first time the livery of Heaven has been stolen to serve the devil in. All the various means to prejudice ignorant men-the failure of the war, the loss of men, heavy taxation, the expectation that any change would be for the better -was used against the man who had not the kind of qualities which repel such assaults-for Mr. Lincoln has no personal magnetism. He has the esteem rather than the enthusiastic love of the pecple. The victory is all the more striking because it was the tri-umph of pure moral force. It is a lesson for the governments of Europe, for it shows that we, under a Republican form of government, have made immense advances in civilization. Since last Sunday we have advanced ages in the path of progress.

The population of the British North American Provinces that are uniting is but little short of 8,300,000. The Catholic religion is hold by considerably more than two fifths of the number.

MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 80, 1965. Hard Fare for Government Animals

Saturday was a dreary, stormy day We are asxious for the spring time to appear and the new grass to come forth so that our half-starved horses and mules, now barely subsisting upon frozen herbage in different parts of the Territory, may have sufficient to eat to avoid starvation. Our readers outside of Utah will be surprised to learn that, while there are thousands of tons of hay rotting in the stacks and overflowing bins of grain in the Territory, not enough can be procured to escape the necessity of seeking the precarious means of existence which unproductive nature affords in these inhospitable regions.

Last fall a "convention" was held by order of Brigham Young, at which the prices of these and other articles needed by the Government were fixed at rates, dictated by him, so arbitrary and outrageous as to amount in fact, to a prohibition of sale, and resulting, not only in much inconvenience and loss to us, but in injury to the people at large. Yet even on these terms, with which we were willing to comply, we found it impossible to procure supplies, being coolly told in some cases we could not have them at any price. This, however, is its the exemption of mail contractors, a specimen of the peculiar loyalty practiced by the Mormon Church leaders, which seeks only to palsy the National arm stretched out for their protection.

And yet they have the effrontery to ask for admission into the Union! and whine that the "Elder Born" must wait so long for the coveted boon of sovereignty. We tell Senators and Congressmen that Utah, while crying piteously for the equality she does not deserve, refuses, from her abundance, to supply the wants of the army now here; that it is only necessary for those, who have heretofore guided her destinies, to know the Government to be in need when they become extortioners every one; that these patriot Judases are in their hearts unfriendly to the welfare of the Nation, and that the most precious months of the coming Spring and Summer must be consumed in recruiting our half-starved animals on the bounty of Nature before we can drive the marauding Indians from the road eastward over which thousands of her own people are compelled annually to travel. Clearly, these uneasy subjects will have to be kept in a "probationary state" yet a little longer before they will become worthy of "exal-

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

Baltimore, Jan. 26th.

An Annapolis dispatch to the Ameri-Jeff Davis included, there is a strong teeling towards making peace on the best terms they can.

Fortress Monroe, Jan. 25th. The steamer McClellan arrived this afternoon from Fort Fisher, and feports our gunboats as gradually feeling their way up the river. They were some four miles above Fisher when the McClellan left. Our troops were quietly resting and organizing for further operations. Washington, Jan. 26th.

Admiral Porter, in a report to the Secretary of the Navy. says: We picked, up a telegram from Lee to his subordinates here, saying if Fisher and Caswell were not beld he would have to evacu-tillery.

The Herald's Newbern correspondent states that an important bridge on the Weldon railroad, over the Roanoke river. was almost entirely swept away by the late freshets. This is a very serious interference with the transportation of the rebel army supplies, and it is said that months will be required to repair it. Large number of slaves are const coming into the Union lines in North Carolina, for the purpose of enlisting in our army.

Resolutions, requesting that Jeff Davis appoint commissioners to negotiate with the government at Washington, for peace, were presented in the rebel House of Representatives, a few days ago, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, by almost an unanf-

The Herald correspondent, in he account of the rebel demonstration on the James, says: The notorious pirate, Semmes is reported to have commanded the expedition. The rebels believed all iron-clads were at Wilmington, and that we had only a few wooden vessels in the river. They intended to force their way through and destroy an enormous amount of shipping and supplies collected at City Point and Bermuda Hundred. There is no doubt the robels intended a co-operation with their land force as extensive movements have been force, as extensive movements have been observed in Lee's army around Peters burg. The fleet consisted of three ironclads, three wooden rams and two small-

The rebel House has proposed the sweeping of the measure of the subject of exemption. It repeals what is known as the negro exemption clause and limand revokes all exemption and details heretofore made by the President and Secretary of War, of persons fit for ac-tive service, and not within certain particulars.

The Tribune's Washington special says; Notwithstanding the denial attributed to Gen. Mead that he has been removed from the command of the army of the Potomac, it is now understood that the two armies, James and Potomac. have been consolidated, and Sherkian has been selected to command them, and that another command or new duties has been assigned to Mead. The time has at last come to bring about peace by hard fighting, with odds in our favor, and Phil Sheridan is put into the north side of the ring. Big bets are made-here that he will knock Lee out of time on the final round.

Late Richmond papers are filled with sharp criticism upon the situation, showing great dissatisfaction throughout the South. The croakers are denounced as becoming troublesome. Women are urged to frown them down, union and harmony are demanded, and there has been an arrest of a large number of disloyal citizens and soldiers in Richmond.

St. Louis. Jan. 27th. Little Rock advices to the 17th say Selby is blockading the Arkansas river at Dardineville, fifteen miles above Little Rock. to prevent vessels from passing to Fort Scott with supplies. A tachment of troops had been sent which attacked Selby on Saturday; particulars not known, further than we lost twentyfive killed, and that Selby evacuated the place after a severe fight.

A dispatch from Col. Livingston, at Fort Kearney, says be has been up the Republican river nearly to Ricken Fork searching for Indians, thence to where Col. Chivington had his fight. Their main trail is westward along the Republican. can says: Blair arrived here this afternoon. He is understood to report that 25 miles west of Julesburg. There among the many leaders in Richmond, is still a rear guard of Indians about Julesburg watching Livingston's move-ments. Col. Livingston says the over-land stages shall run and he will protect Toronto, Jan. 27th.

The Burlugh case was decided this morning. The judges are of the unanimous opinion that prisoners should be given up.

Fortress Monroe, Jan. 25th. Heavy guns are being mounted at City Point and other places to oppose the rebel fleet should it again attempt to pass that point. The Ironsides and Atlanta were ordered up the James river

New York. Jan. 27th. The Commercial's special says, it is believed that Blair's answer to a letter from Mr. Seward to him which he carried to Richmond as quasi credentials will show utter hopelesness of peace negotiations.

Washington, Jan. 27th. In the Senate Pomeroy offered a joint resolution calling upon the President to issue his proclamation declaring the State of Arkansas no longer in insur-rection against the United States, and authorizing the resumption of commercial intercourse between that and other States; also, declaring the Senators and Representatives recently election in that State shall be recognized and admitted to seats in Congress, which was laid on the table and ordered print-

Ames presented a resolution instruct ting the Sec'y of the Treasury to enforce the regulations for carrying of passengers between New York and San Francisco, on the Atlantic side.

New York, Jan. 27th.
The Tribune's Fort Fisher corre pondent says, the rebels have constructed a breastwork nearly from the ocean to the river above our lines, evidently preparing as best they can, to contest our advance.

Philadelphia, Jan. 27th, The following is a special to the Evening Telegraph: Washington, Jan. 27th.

It is now definitely known that Blair's mission to Richmond has been crowned with complete success. Davis pledged himself to send immediately three gentlemen to Washington to confer upon terms of peace. Davis stated distinctly to Blair that he would conclude peace and return to the Union upon terms that would be perfectly satisfactory to Lincoln and Congress. Blair also had an interview with Lee, who avowed himself desirous of ending the rebellion and returning to the Union. Blair also conversed with a majority of the rebel Congressmen who represented themselves as in favor of abandoning further hostilities. No doubt but that in a day or two, at the farthest, Commissioners will reach Washington to bring from the repentant rebels the renewed allegi-ance to the Union, Constitution and Laws. Blair experienced the kindest treatment at the hands of the authorities and reported that since the reduction of Fort Fisher an entire revolution of public opinion had taken place. The most extreme advocates of fighting it out to the bitter end, will now admit the hopelessness of their cause. The probability of an early peace was treely discussed in social and political circles in Richmond, and a general feeling of joy and relief resulted from the rapid circulation of the information.

Washington, Jan. 27th. Blair arrived at Washington this morn-

Some guerrillas made a raid on Occoquan, below Alexandria, on Tuesday night, carrying off everything of value to the citizens that they could obtain. New York, Jan. 27th

The Commercial's special says: Blair had an interview with the President this forenoon. His friends say his mission will lead to peace, but give no reasons for saying so. Portland, Jan. 27th.

The Hibernian from Liverpool the 12th and Londonderry the 13th, brings the following:

Historicus, the well-known legal writer in the Times, publishes a long letter denouncing the instructions of Mr. Benjamin to the rebel Secretary of the Navy as to the treatment of neutral vessels by rebel cruisers. He hopes that whatever else these instructions may accomplish, they will at least secure this: That no contederate craiser shall ever again hail from an English port.

It is stated that the British government has officially announced its accession to International Sanitary Association of Geneva for the better treatment of the sick and wounded in war.

France. It is reported that a number of ships are to be disarmed in accord-

Spain. The U. S. steamer Sacramento arrived at Cadiz on the 3d. she had been in collision with a British brig, the latter was damaged, but nothing is said of the damage to the Sacramento.

In the Senate, Calderon Collantes attacked the Ministry for the abandonment of St. Domingo. Marshal Narvez replied that it was in the interest of Spain the step was proposed.

The Turin journals deny the statement that at a meeting of the Italian patriots at Geneva, it had been decided to instigate an insurrection with the approval of the Italian government. The of the committee of inquiry into the department disturbances at Turin, absolves the Mirghetle Cabinet from having violated the laws, but charges it with want of energy and foresight, and with having deceived Italy as to the nature of the Washington, Jan. 27th. The Riehmond Examiner of the 21st has the following:

The President has signed the bill creating a General-in-Chief-no appointment was made. The Sentinel of the 25th says, cannon and musketry was beard in the direction of battery Harrison yesterday, and it was reported that battery Harrison had been re-captured from the Yankees.

It is believed that Blair las been authorized to offer any terms of settlement that could be accepted by the Confede-What consultations have taken place between him and Davis, it is presumed, are only known to themselves. The blockade runner Polisman, from Wilmington for Bermuda, foundered at sea on the 29th of Dec. The crew were saved by an American steamer and taken to Bermuda.

The Herald's special says, it is reported that in consequence of the readiness manifested by the Canadian authorities to refund the money stolen by the St. Albans raiders and their intention of taking effectual means to prevent raids in future, the Sec'y of State will soon rescind the passport order.

Col. North, State Agent of New York, tried for frauds on soldiers, has been unconditionally released from arrest by the order of the Sec'y of War.

The Herald's Winchester corrrespondent gives an account of a cavalry reconnoisance up the valley to Berry's Ford on the Shenandoah, which was found to be very high and impracticable for crossing. The smaller streams flowing into the Shenandoah were also high. The command returned to camp via Millwood and Winchester pike without finding any enemy.

The fragment of Breckenridge's army that escaped Stoneman and Burbridge are at Lynchburg. Rosser's cavalry command is divided and stationed at Staunton and Woodstock. Wickham's brigade of Rosser's division, which made a recent raid on Beverly, retreated up the Cheat mountain valley on the Biffles river and crossed the mountain through Big Run gap to Staunton, where the prisoners were sent by railroad to Richmond.

New York, Jan. 28th.

The morning papers are filled with peace gossip in connection with Blair's visit to Richmond. The Times and World say his negotiations have proved a failure. The Tribune says the result is unknown to outsiders.

The Herald's army of the James cor-respondent says: The attempt of the rebel naval raid on the James river ended in a complete failure. Their fleet returned to Richmond after suffering the loss of a ram, blown up by Union shells. The rebels landed some troops on Farrars Island, on the James, for the purpose of co-operating with the fleet. These were driven off by the Union

Late rebel papers continue to show that the confusion, doubt and despon-dency regarding the success of their condency regarding the successful among the federacy is now as prevalent among the chief rebels themselves as well as mass of the people.

The Examiner of the arms long series of blunders convincing some long series of blunders later, have now produced the very general, and indeed one might say, universal belief among all intelligent observers, that our government, as it is now conducted, is not equal to the great occasion, that the feeling of confidence we carefully nurtured has been hopelessly broken, that great element of success is gone from us unless in some way we reform the administration of our government.

The Examiner says the expedition of our iron-clads down the river had been designed to break the enemy's pontoon bridges, and thus destroy his communications and to take advantage of the as-certained fact that he had withdrawn most of his naval force from the river, probably to Wilmington, leaving but of iron-clad and some wooden vessels in the channel above Varine. There was also reason to suppose that the recent freshet had washed out a portion of his line of obstructions, and this opened the way to the attack on his pontoon. The expedition is understood to have originated and planned by Gen. Lee, in view of the circumstances referred to.

ing is the purport of the notes exchanged between Anstria and Prussia:

Austria repudiates the participating in the proposed forcible measures against the middle States represented by Bismark as revolutionary.

Austria will Bismark as revolutionary. Austria will not abandon the ground of Federal right, and reminds Bismark, in case Prussia should desire the annexation of Prussia should desire all amnexation of the Dutchees, of the suggestion former-ly offered, to the effect that Austria would only consent to annexation by would only consent to annexation by being compensated by the enlargement of her German border. The King of Prussia had opened the Chambers. In his speech the King says, steps should be taken to form the Prussian navy.

Preliminary surveys are being made for a canal between the Baltic and North seas, and that the Dutchees are to be acquired.

The steamer Selia, a blockade runner, bence for Wilmington, was totally lost this morning off the bar of Mersey—loss of life is from eighteen to forty.

Omaha, Jan. 28th.

Three hundred Indians attacked Valley station 450 miles west of here, this morning, and run off 650 head of cattle, and burned 100 tons of Gov't hay. A three hours engagement took place between the Indians and twenty soldiers. Twelve Indians were killed. No soldiers killed.

New York, Jan. 28th. The Herald's special says Blair re-ports there are plenty of peace men in Richmond, and that much wrangling and divisions among rebel leaders. All are so jealous and watchful of each other that no one dares make any advance towards official overtures for the cessation of hostilities; therefore it has been determined by them, notwishstanding all their recent disasters to make one more desperate effort by placing ne groes in their armies and the more rigorous enforcement of the conscription of white men to achieve their independent President Davis has issued a proclamation appointing Friday the 10th of March next, as a day of public fasting, humiliation, prayer and thanksgiving and for inveking the favor and guidance of Almighty God. He earnestly invites all soldiers and citizens to observe the same in a spirit of reverence, penitence and prayer.

Local Matters.

DIVINE SERVICE .- Rev. N. McLeod had a full attendance yesterday morning. His discourse was an able one, and afforded much gratification to his hearers. He claimed that he came here to build up the cause of christianity, not the cause of party or sect. He also compared the present work in Utah to the Jews in rebuilding the wall about Jerusilem. We trust that all living in the city may hear him. Let the truth prevail. Truth never wronged an person. He also preached in Camp yesterday afternoon, and it was a sermon to which loyal ears could listen with pleasure. THE soldiers at Camp Douglas have determined not to let the anniversary of the memorable "Battle of Bear River" pass unobservedly. Mr. Avet of the Camp Restaurant has kindly offered to furnish the supper and credit the men until pay-day. Arrangements are now in progress for a ball at the Camp Theater, this evening, and although but a day's notice is given, we arc-assured that the party will be none the less attractive. About fifty couple will be assembled and the dance will go merrily on.

Counterfeiters are no new thing. So long ago as five hundred years before Christ, Greek and Roman coins were counterfeited, and some of the counterfeits have come down to the present time. But it is doubtful if there were ever so many counterfeits as now, not of money alone, but of almost everything we use.
